

Application Acknowledgement

We understand that some information may not be readily available in an event permit submission. Please use this form to slide into the required boxes if you are lacking specific items. Too many of these acknowledgements may require a re-submission. Each of these items are vitally important based on your button selection.

If you have any questions, please read helpful hints on how to prepare for an event or watch the video that will explain expectations.

I acknowledge that I am missing information required on the event permit application. This information is necessary to process the application in a timely manner. Failure to provide the information may cause delay to the issuance of a permit or cause rejection. This is a placeholder for that information:

I am missing the following item necessary to process the application:

This is the current status of that item:

- I am in contact with the appropriate agency, department, party, or company to provide those services.
- I am still trying to obtain the permit, certification, or approval - this action is in progress.
- Other disposition (Explain)

I propose to submit this item on the following date:
