Welcome to Rowlett Public Library's Summer Reading!

This year we're doing things a little differently, but we still have fun programs and prizes to encourage the love of reading. We're making these changes to help keep everyone healthy and since we've obviously never hosted Summer Reading challenges during a national health emergency, we may have to adapt a few things along the way. We'll keep you informed of any changes we may need to make to our programming as the summer unfolds.

Instead of having storytimes and programs at the Library, we're hosting our programs online through Facebook. Be sure to follow the Library on Facebook and comment on the teen and adult virtual programs to earn extra entries into the grand prize drawing - A Kindle Fire.

This year, we've made reading challenges even easier to record! Each week, complete the online entry form on our web site to be entered into weekly prize drawings. For each challenge category, we'll also have a grand prize drawing at the end of summer. The more weeks you enter your reading challenge goals, the greater your chance of winning the grand prize. We still have paper reading logs for young readers to chart their progress and we'll still have small prize giveaways throughout the summer for our younger readers.

Thank you for your support of Rowlett Public Library and your participation in Summer Reading. Our patrons are the very best part of the Library. Please contact the Library if you have any questions about our Summer Reading at reference@rowlett.com or 972-412-6161.

Best Regards,
Laura Tschoerner
Interim Library Director
