Questions? Please contact Young Artists Exhibit committee member, Deborah Crosby at dcadvoc8@gmail.com.

Display Panels: Display panels are constructed with carpet like covering. Velcro will adhere very well to the displays. Please consider this when preparing your students' artworks.

Note to Teachers: Due to space limitations, containers for transporting artwork cannot be stored in City buildings during the Exhibit.

REMINDER: Please complete the Creative Works Display Agreement, included in this packet. The form should be signed by the parent/legal guardian for each student who submits artwork. By signing, the parent/legal guardian is giving permission to the City for its unlimited use of the original creative work for promotional purposes and may be displayed, publicized, republished, broadcast and/or distributed by the City through various media, including the City's website, public access cable television, and/or displayed at City and public facilities.

Utmost care will be taken in handling, hanging and displaying of artist's work. Participants understand that the City of Rowlett and Arts & Humanities Commission cannot be held responsible for any accidental damage that may occur during this exhibit.

FAQ

- When can I drop off artwork and where? When does the artwork need to be picked up?
 - Artwork will be accepted Friday, March 26 from 3–5 pm & Saturday, March 27 from 10 am-12 pm at Rowlett Public Library, located at 3900 Main Street in Rowlett.
 - Artwork will need to be picked up Friday, April 23 from 3-5 pm & Saturday, April 24 from 10 am-12 pm
- I am not available the dates and time listed above. Can I drop off or pick up entries at another time?
 - Arts and Humanities Commission members are appointed by the City Council and generously volunteer their time. Many members are employed full-time and have arranged to be available at the times listed above to allow teachers two options.
- How many entries will I be able to enter?
 - Art instructors may enter no more than 10 (ten) items.
- Why must an instructor provide a student's mailing address?
 - Mailing addresses are required to process award checks.
- When will the winners be announced?
 - Judging will take place Saturday, March 27, 2021
 - Ribbons will be displayed on artwork following the judging
 - The Standing Committee will notify the winners (and their instructors) after March 29, 2021
- In previous years, I left my transportation containers at the Library. Will I be able to do so again this year?
 - Unfortunately, no. Space limitations prohibit the storage of containers at any City building during the Exhibit.
