City Manager Presents: 'FY 2010: A Year In Review' video

ROWLETT, TX - Join City Manager Lynda Humble as she presents an informative video summarizing many of the City's fiscal year 2010 accomplishments.

In this 45-minute presentation, Ms. Humble outlines the progress made on the City's Work Plan and talks about numerous other achievements made last year including the City's active volunteer program, community outreach, increased Neighborhood Crime Watch programs, new special events, improvements in technology, Fire Department, Municipal Court, Library and Code Enforcement accomplishments.

The presentation also covers the efficiencies and reorganization of the Police Department, progress made on the DART Blue Line and Presidents George Bush Turnpike construction, the success of the Warrant Recovery Program and the amazing accomplishments made at the Wet Zone Waterpark.

Ms. Humble outlines the success of the 2010 "Shop Rowlett" local stimulus program, the launch of the City's new website, improvements in communication with citizens, park maintenance improvements, fiscal responsibility and the Capital Improvement Program progress.
